

Dec 11, 2010: Smt, Savitri Subramanian

Smt. Savitri, started her initial training at an early age of ten, under Vidwan Sri. T.K. Rangachari. She then continued her training with Sri Vairamangalam S. Lakshminarayanan.

She has performed in her younger years, at several sabhas in India. Although she never gave up singing, she sacrificed a potential career in music in order to focus on marriage and family life. At the age of 73, coming to Phoenix, has rekindled her vocal chords with new energy. She wishes to thank Kanchi Kamakotipeedathipathi Maha Swamigal, her Gurus and her family for providing all support.

Jan 16, 2011: Smt Padma Venkata

Padma Venkata commenced her musical training at a young age of 8 under the tutelage of her mother Smt. Saradha Dinamani. After learning many Varnams and Kirtanams from her mother, Padma trained for advanced concepts from carnatic maestro Dr.D. Raghavachari, the older of the Hyderabad Brothers.

Blessed with a powerful voice, Padma expresses herself with great clarity. Her music is melodious, soothing and has a devotional flavour. She has won several prizes at the Annual Kalasagaram Music Festival in Hyderabad, in addition to the prizes won at various other competitions. With several performances to her credit in India, Padma has evolved a distinct style of her own which maintains the purity of the classical form while blending instantly with the expectations of the rasikas.
